MAKING A DIFFERENCE EVERYDAY

Robert Cogliati, CPA

Partner of Caminiti & Cogliati, Robert P. Cogliati is an accomplished accounting professional with 30 years of expertise in managing accounting and consulting services for a diverse group of clients in a variety of industries, as well as tax and succession planning for businesses and individuals. Bob is a member of both the American Institute of Certified Public Accounts (AICPA) and the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants (NYSSCPA). His expertise in review and compilation, accounting and auditing issues has been recognized by the association and he has lectured on these topics. Bob is no stranger to the financial concerns of business owners large and small. Additionally, his involvement with various charitable organizations and community groups has lent to a greater understanding of the specific needs of these not-for-profit organizations.

Bob has served as the President and Treasurer of the Visiting Nurse Service & Hospice House of Suffolk. He has chaired numerous committees, raising funds and awareness for the organization. He has dedicated countless hours to serving this great organization and has even modeled at the annual fashion show many times.

Bob was an original member of the East Northport Chamber of Commerce serving as its Treasurer and Vice President and also served on the Northport-East Northport School District's audit committee. He also volunteers his time in coaching his children in various sports such as soccer, basketball, softball and baseball.

He earned his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in accounting from Pace University. In addition to being a licensed Certified Public Accountant in both New York and Florida, he holds a New York State Life and Health Insurance license.

Bob has been a resident of Northport and East Northport for over 45 years and enjoys spending time with his wife Sloane and his four children.
